What We Do

The IILM was established to issue tradable, Shari'ah-compliant instruments to support the varying liquidity needs of institutions offering Islamic financial services (IIFS).

Since the inaugural issuance of USD 490 million 3-month Sukūk in August 2013, the IILM programme has grown and the IILM Sukūk outstanding currently stands at USD 3.51 billion.

The IILM has become a frequent and stable issuer, constantly offering three different tenors on a monthly basis, namely 1-month, 3-month and 6-month Sukūk.

In 2021, the IILM Sukūk accounted for 27% of the total global USD Sukūk issuances and positioned the IILM as one of the top USD Sukūk issuers.
